

Called 2011

Email clerks@187chambers.com

Telephone 020 7430 7430

Harry Warner

Harry joined chambers in 2012. Whilst specialising in criminal litigation, his practice also encompasses professional discipline, tax appeals and public inquiries. He is regularly instructed in cases involving complex issues of law and evidence and is known for combining a keen eye for detail with clear and practical advice.

Public Inquiries

Harry is currently instructed as second junior counsel to the Undercover Policing Inquiry, chaired by Sir John Mitting.

Criminal Defence

R v SM (2015) – Represented a defendant charged as part of a conspiracy to transfer criminal property. Secured suspended sentence.

R v JJ (2016) – Client charged with serious sexual offence involving children.

R v AS (2016) – Client charged with GBH against a police officer which resulted in a psychiatric disposal.

R v ML (2017) – Represented a client charged with reckless arson concerning fire at a hotel.

R v PL (2017) – Instructed to represent a client charged with causing multiple serious injuries by dangerous driving.

R v FE (2018) – Instructed to represent a client charged with money laundering of over £200,000 which resulted in a non-custodial sentence.

R v RB (2018) – Client charged as part of a 'county lines' drugs conspiracy.

R v GC (2018) – Represented a client charged with perverting the course of justice. Case had a complex background and involved several international witnesses.

Criminal Prosecution

R v DS (2017) – Prosecution for high value theft from employer which centred on complex disclosure issues.

R v KM (2017) – Instructed to advise on an early prosecution brought under The Psychoactive Substances Act 2016.

R v RM (2017) – Prosecuted serious knifepoint robbery.

R v OH (2018) – Prosecuted a defendant charged with offences of computer hacking involving expert evidence.

Fraud and Financial Crime

R v GR (2016) – Represented a client charged with complex insolvency fraud.

R v PA (2016) – Represented defendant charged with multiple frauds against vulnerable victims.

R v AR (2017) – Represented a client acquitted of a high value fraud against former employer

Military & Courts Martial

R v RB (2018) – Charge of absence without leave

Professional Discipline

Harry has acted in cases before the Nursing and Midwifery Council.

Tax Appeals

WHG v HMRC (2014) – Acted in proceedings before the First Tier Tribunal.

LCC v HMRC (2014) – Acted for Appellant.

DML v HMRC (2014) – Instructed to advise HMRC.

IML v HMRC (2013) – Advised HMRC at early stage of proceedings.

Professional Memberships

Criminal Bar Association
South Eastern Circuit
Middle Temple

Awards, Qualifications & Other

Awards

South Eastern Circuit Florida Advanced Advocacy Scholarship (2016)
Queen Mother's Scholarship, Middle Temple (2010)

Qualifications

Bar Professional Training Course, City Law School London (Outstanding)
Graduate Diploma in Law, City Law School London (Commendation)
BA (Hons) History & Politics, University of Sussex

Professional Appointments

CPS Prosecution Counsel, Grade 3
Attorney General's Panel Counsel (C Panel)