Peter Guest

Peter Guest qualified in 1975 and specialises in criminal and financial fraud cases. He is also a Recorder of the Crown Court dealing with crime and serious sexual offences. He leads in criminal defence at all levels up to and including murder, serious sexual offences, serious fraud and serious drug offences. In addition, Peter is listed as one of the top barristers for fraud in the U.K in the Legal 500.

"Peter Guest is a leading figure at the London Bar in defending criminal fraud charges"

'Peter has a wonderful balance of personal warmth and dogged professional determination which appeals to all of his clients. His written opinions are always concise, and his courtroom manner has jurors spellbound.'

"A highly-respected criminal defence specialist"

"an accomplished courtroom performer" who "always impresses"

"With more than 30 years' experience and a proven track record of success".
Chambers and Partners

"Solicitors say he's one of the best advocates they have seen." Legal 500

"He has real authority and presence in the courtroom, and can be firm with judges and witnesses if required." Legal 500

Previous clients recommend him:

"The first barrister to really understand me and my case" and "the perfect cross-examiner"

"Before your speech, I felt we were 6-nil down. Now we are 7-6 up"

Judges are also generous with praise:

"The best final speech I have ever heard in a fraud"

"It was a joy to watch you work"

He has wide experience of defending clients charged, with all aspects of crime, including fraud, money laundering, drugs, sexual offences and murder, both in the Crown Court and on appeal. He is also considered an expert in confiscation and cash forfeiture under the Proceeds of Crime Act and he undertakes regulatory work.

His practice has taken him to the Privy Council in a 'death row' appeal and to the European Court of Justice in a VAT appeal.

He is approved by the Bar Council to accept instructions direct from the public, without the need for a solicitor.
