Satya Chotalia

Profile

Satya's broad criminal practice includes cases of serious violence, sexual offences, armed robbery, burglary, drug offences, dangerous driving, money laundering, fraud and confiscation. He has conducted appeals before the Court of Appeal and High Court.

Satya served in the Officer Training Corps and Air Training Corps. He has a particular interest in military, courts martial and international criminal law cases. Satya has travelled to various military bases throughout the world.

Prosecution

He is a Level 2 CPS panel advocate and also instructed to prosecute on behalf of the Department for Work and Pensions. Satya has appeared in trials prosecuted by the Security Industry Authority and the Royal Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

Fraud

Satya has been instructed as a lead junior on a multi-handed money laundering trial. Having undertaken a secondment at the Serious Fraud Office Satya gained experience in complex fraud investigations including the "LIBOR" prosecutions. As disclosure junior he processed and analysed large volumes of digital evidence and dealt with issues of legal professional privilege on documents seized during the course of investigations.

Notable Cases

Satya has been described by a Crown Court Judge as "a fine advocate and an asset to the bar".

> R v RO - Possession of firearm and 300 rounds of live ammunition. Suspended sentence following plea in mitigation.

> R v DW - Instructed in conspiracy to defraud trial involving multiple defendants.
